

TEACHING CONFESSIONS IN WISCONSIN

A Great World Texts Educator Colloquium

Monday, September 22

- 5:30 Welcome Reception: cocktails & hors d'oeuvres
University Club Foyer
- 7:30 "A Conversation with Edmund White and Michael Carroll"
Conrad A. Elvehjem Building, L160

Tuesday, September 23

126 Memorial Library

- 8:00 Arrivals & Introductions over coffee, juice and bagels
- 8:30 SARA GUYER, Center for the Humanities Director
Welcome & Great World Texts in Wisconsin Resource Overview
- 9:00 THERESA M. KELLEY, Marjorie and Lorin Tiefenthaler Professor of English & Faculty Advisor to Confessions in Wisconsin
"Rousseau on Rousseau: Writing the Self"
- 10:15 break
- 10:30 CAROLINE LEVINE, Professor of English
"Does a single word make a difference? A close reading workshop"
- 11:45 Lunch
University Club, Banquet Room (lower level)
- 12:45 SUZANNE DESAN, Vilas-Shinners Professor of History
"'Man is Born Free, but He is Everywhere in Chains': Society and Politics according to Rousseau"
- 2:00 ROBIN E. RIDER, Curator of Special Collections, Memorial Library
Presentation on rare and illustrated library materials and textile resources
- 3:00 break
- 3:15 LAINI KAVALOSKI, PhD candidate in the Department of English
"Confessions in Digital Media: Assignment in the Literature Classroom"
- 4:15 Evaluations & Closing Remarks