

Sponsored by the Wolff Center for American Thought, Culture, and Society, with support from the College of Letters & Science

The Role of the Public University in Civic Education and Civil Dialogue A Fireside Chat

Join Dr. Jane Kamensky, President and CEO, Thomas Jefferson's Monticello and Jonathan Trumbull Professor of American History, emerita, Harvard University and Interim Chancellor Eric M. Wilcots, UW–Madison as they discuss the important role public universities have in civic education and civil dialogue.

Dr. Jane Kamensky

SEPTEMBER 16, 2026

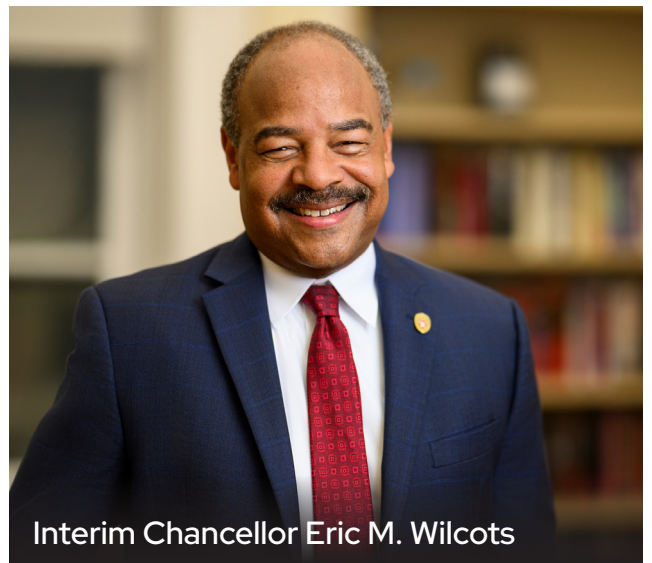

6:00 P.M.

Phillips Auditorium,
Irving & Dorothy Levy Hall,
232 N. Park Street, Madison

6:00 p.m. Doors open

6:15 p.m. Introductory remarks by Interim
Dean Kristin R. Eschenfelder,
College of Letters & Science

6:30 p.m. Fireside Chat

Interim Chancellor Eric M. Wilcots

All are welcome to attend this FREE, in-person event.

College of Letters & Science
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON